6 Mar 52

An unusual program at The Cleveland Museum of Art will be the lecture-demonstration of dances and songs of the New Zealand Maoris and the Australian Aborigines by Beth Dean and her husband, Victor Carell, Friday, March 14, at 8:15 PM.

William E Ward, instructor in the Art Museum will give an illustrated lecture on Southern India, Sunday, March 16 at 3:45 PM.

March 16 will also be THE LAST DAY TO SEE THE MATISSE SHOW.

A series of four Wednesdays on interior decorating will begin in the Art Museum, "Fashions in Living" organized by Mrs Robert M. Hornung with guest speakers, Wednesday, March 19, at 10:30 AM, and 8:15 PM, on each Wednesday. Free to the public.